Deseret News TRY BETA
Search
NATIONAL EDITION

KJQ HOME

By Lynn Arave, Radio Editor
Published: Friday, Feb. 28 1992 12:00 a.m. MST

Print | Font [+] [-] | Leave a comment »

Summary

Clyde Lewis is now back on the air, but he's had to find a new home at KJQN (FM-92.7, 95.5, 104.9 and AM-1490). Lewis most recently was morning co-host at KMGR. His status at ``Magic'' was put on hold after Mark Van Wagoner announced his departure from the station. Lewis is on KJQ from 5:45-10 a.m. with co-host Kerry Jackson.
He also worked previously at KZHT and with ``Jon and Dan'' at KLZX.

Clyde Lewis is now back on the air, but he's had to find a new home at KJQN (FM-92.7, 95.5, 104.9 and AM-1490). Lewis most recently was morning co-host at KMGR. His status at "Magic" was put on hold after Mark Van Wagoner announced his departure from the station. Lewis is on KJQ from 5:45-10 a.m. with co-host Kerry Jackson.

He also worked previously at KZHT and with "Jon and Dan" at KLZX."Clyde is exactly what KJQ has needed," Scott Gilreath, station vice president and general manager said. "His wacky humor, character voices and in-depth knowledge of Utah combined with his love for alternative music makes Clyde the perfect partner for Kerry Jackson."

Jackson had been without a permanent co-host since the majority of the former KJQ staff left the station last year. KJQ thought it had a replacement earlier this month in Mo Mellady from California, but she was lured away by a Sacramento radio station within a week.

"I'm excited about KJQ's approach to Modern and Alternative music," Lewis said. "It's refreshing to be working with people who are excited about their station and put their efforts into producing a great sound. I hope to bring credibility to KJQ. KJQ is still and will remain dedicated to bringing modern music to Utah listeners. We're not changing, just evolving," he concluded.

KJQ's remaining regular lineup is Allison Strong from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m.; John Doe from 3-7 p.m.; Jane Ramone from 7 p.m. until midnight and Justin Case from midnight until 5:45 a.m.

- KBZN (alias "The Breeze," FM-97.9) - The station was featured in the Feb. 14 edition of "Radio and Records," a trade publication. The honor came because the station had one of the greatest gains in listeners, ages 25-54, compared to other New Age Contemporary Music stations, based on the fall Arbitron ratings book.

KBZN has taken a no-nonsense approach to radio and has no contests and only a few prize giveaways. It concentrates on music. Dale Nelson, station program director, has to take a lot of the credit for the station's rise to success.

Here are upcoming programming highlights for the station:

Try out the new DeseretNews.com design!
TRY BETA LEARN MORE

Sign up for news updates
Email Address *

Most Popular
In Utah Across Site
WATCH LIVE: Unified police and Salt Lake...
Photos: Tim McGraw performs at Stadium of Fire
As Utah braces for Zika, health officials...
Navy veteran embracing life again in new...
Low Utah Lake alters search and rescue...
15-year-old Hurricane boy dies after falling...
Environmental group calls for widespread lead...
For some, learning money management is...

Get The Deseret News Everywhere
Subscribe Mobile Facebook Twitter RSS Email

Most Commented
In Utah Across Site
Utah Republicans lash out at Clinton in... 68
Chaffetz will question FBI director... 58
Poll: Utahns oppose public bathroom... 26
Hatch asks Trump to make 'critical... 17
Dallas shooting leaves Utah law... 15
'Disturbing' police video: Top city... 14
Teen charged with double murder in... 13
Sen. Orrin Hatch telling Donald Trump... 12

Sunday, March 1, Outback and "Dance the Devil Away" will be featured on "Musical Starstreams, (8-10 a.m.) Later in the day, "Jazz Trax," (7 p.m.-midnight) will have guest Dan Siegel.

The station's "7 O'Clock CD" schedule for next week is: Monday, March 2: "Excusez-Moi," by Peter White;

Deseret News TRY BETA Search NATIONAL EDITION

Thursday, March 5: "Collection," by Dave Grusin; and Friday, March 6: "Playing with Fire," by San Riney.

- KISN (FM-97.1/AM-570) - Earlier this month, the station staged some sensational promotional events ranging from the "I'm Too Sexy" contest to the "Cher and Cher Alike" event.

"Fisher and Todd" arranged the "Sexy" contest, a lip sync to the popular song "I'm Too Sexy" and when it was all over, Monaco Trujillo was judged to be the winner.

Lisa Allgood, singing "I Found Someone" was the winner in KISN's "Cher" contest and Jenny Walters was randomly selected as the winner in the station's Grammy nomination contest.

- KSL (AM-1160) - Here are Saturday, Feb. 29, programming highlights for the station:

7-10 a.m. - Pruning trees will be discussed on "The KSL Greenhouse" show, with Don Shafer, Larry Sagers and Tony Hatch.

10-11 a.m. - "Car Radio" will have a special show on car collecting: how to fix them up, where to get parts, etc.

11-11:30 a.m. - "Your House" will feature "Mr. Fix It," Steve Peterson from Bill's Appliance in Orem, with tips on how to fix any household appliance.

11:30 a.m.-noon - "KSL's Cooking Show" will examine different ways to cook chicken.

- KBYU (FM-89.1) - The bicentennial of the birth of Gioachini Rossini will be celebrated at the Metropolitan Opera, on Saturday, Feb. 29, 11 a.m. with the broadcast of "Il Barbiere di Siviglia - The Barber of Seville."

Recommended Stories

Police identify suspected gunman arrested in shooting deaths of teens

Unified police have arrested the man who they believe gunned down two teenage siblings.

Mother, lifeguards help 3-year-old in near-drowning incident

A 3-year-old boy who nearly drowned Wednesday at the American Fork pool is home from the hospital.

7 ideas for a new family tradition: Provo to Midway

Where will your kids take theirs? Probably to the places you took them. Luckily, Utah is overflowing with tradition-ready destinations and activities.

Comments

Leave a comment »

DeseretNews.com encourages a civil dialogue among its readers. We welcome your thoughtful comments.
— About comments